Whyte has the Will Power

Douglas Whyte hopes the timing is right with Will Power when his dirt specialist makes the switch for turf riches in today's HK$3.15 million Class 1 Chinese New Year Cup Handicap over 1400m at Sha Tin Racecourse.

"He seems to be enjoying what he is doing at the moment and I think that's the key to him, when he's feeling good and he's healthy he tends to bring that to the races, so he gets the perfect opportunity to show us if he can do something on the turf, and if not, then there's a race for him a month later on the dirt," Whyte said.

A seven-time winner on the dirt in Hong Kong - including last start - Will Power has competed on the grass only four times but has done so for two placings - once bravely missing by a neck at Happy Valley over 1200m in Class 2.

"I've always thought he would handle the turf and he's run very well at Happy Valley previously.

"He's been unlucky a few times and he's only once been over 1400m - that day he was ridden a little bit upside down - and at the moment he's in no man's land with his rating there's not many options, so it's the perfect race to give him another shot," Whyte said.

Will Power - on 109 - is the highest rated horse in this lucrative contest.

"He's probably in as good form - if not slightly better than his last race, so he's in a rich vein of form at the moment and if he gets a nice run then he should be giving a good account of himself," Whyte said.

Blake Shinn takes the reins aboard Will Power and the pair steps away from gate No 7 against the likes of Lucky Ex-

Guineas betting

Desert Miracle has been priced up at 6-10 to win the Grade 2 Wilgerbosdrift Gauteng Fillies Guineas over 1600m at Turffontein on Sat-

Mike de Kock's charge has excellent form and deserves to be at the top of the boards.

After that, it is almost anybody's guess. Sean Tarry-trained Rain In Holland has yet to reproduce her two-year-old form but has finished third in her three starts this season.

The World Sports Betting Gauteng Guineas is more open but once again a De Kock runner tops the boards and that is Dingaans winner Safe Passage. However, there are a number of up-and-coming three-year-old who could trouble Safe Passage this time.

BETTING

PREVIEW ■ Good race. NAARAH never travelled last time when downfield but has won fresh before and uld do it again. Stable companion SEEMYVISION always gives her best and has money claims. BIG EYEL GIRL is holding form and should be right there again. Top weight BEFORE THE DAWN and stablemate ABALUS, who carries bottom weight, are both in with chances. HERSTEL needed her last run and could get into the reckoning. ALULA'S STAR cannot be ruled out.

QUIET REBELLION won at the second time of asking and could come on in heaps. She receives 7.5kg and 8.5kg from them respectively. BLUE MOON CITY is in form and a hat-trick could be completed.
